New Year's Day
Bank Holiday (Scotland)

Damp, misty day Spent morning at go into business, Drafted letter to Doak and First Nat.
Bank of Boston about my shares in com.
and hope that they can take charge. Got letter to Boston of this morning keeping a copy. Run to at home. Completed draft to Doak and went to eat 3.30. Slept and changed reply. Did not wake up and got up for tea and 6.30. Read E. Standard & Times. Then drinks and dinner. W. Mrs. 10 may W. Mr. Doak.

Saturday, January 2

Up 6.50 Spent morning checking statements from Lloyd and Westminster Banks. Dull grey day but not wet. Out to lunch at Gut stamps including Air p. c.
Came straight home for No 9. bus. Raining gently by that time. To bed and slept till 5. Up and read New Statesman, Times, Sun, & Times. Tea. Matteda had got lunch for me thinking I wanted to be in. Difficult not to skin waffles but seems a waste of time Drinks as usual before dinner Anna gave me my dinner, but in reply to my question she said that Matteda was actually in. After dinner I studied the Christmas cards to see how many I must ask.

Sunday, January 3

Amg about Woke and up about 7:15
2nd Sunday after Christmas Called up Gladys Robertson who had gone to her Christian Science Church (I think with Fanny Hardwick) & see Betty says that Ruth & Hugh is having 7 her own. I looked at "Sunday Papers" sent W. Stinson & Times but Sep. 7 Mr. Stewart. Damp day. Did not go out. Gladys Robertson came to luncheon and Louise von Rhein on her way back to Munich by air this afternoon. She played for me on my piano. She is immensely improved and now quite a woman of the world if fat and plain - a nice jolly nature. She left in a taxi for airport. Gladys took down addresses from Observer for 7 or 8 weeks. Rested. Tea. Colonel Bain & called up about 8:30

Monday, January 4

Slept well up to 7.15. Letter from Marion w/ thanks for my white pictures. Touched up maggie p. c. and then painted in ket sides to 18 more. Damp day under foot but not actually raining. Out to Baker street Post-Office office to ask again for my Camels hair shades most for Hepplewhite's but has not come in. Picked at home 1.15. Rested early and long. Dressed at 4.15 Dunked dinner. Spent evening cataloguing all my Christmas cards and then decided then up to send to addresses given in a letter to Observer Copied by Gladys Paulson yesterday. When I had finished it - was 1.30 A.M.

Tuesday, January 5

wake 7.15 and then stayed till 8 and then skipped shaving. Peter called up is back from Country.
Says he will look me up next week end.
Sent Hoover return of of £3. 9. 0 to Ch. + Bank Addressed the envelopes of Christmas Cards. Mild funny day. Maura came at 12.45 for lunch.
I got her dry Martini and Sherry for myself and white wine at lunch for her and beer for me. She left about 3 and I went out even after and posted the four big envelopes of Xmas cards. Back and down to rest about 3.45. Up and at 5.45. Read E. Standard. Dumps might have an income of something like £5000. which would make it all easy

Wednesday, January 13

Slept well with happy dreams very unlike the night before. Woke and up 6.50 Examined white with thin snobs. After breakfast and morning routine studied G's estate settlement and drafted letter to Maddox. More or less completed it by 1.30 and took bus to bank and spent a good half hour with one of the assistant managers at St. Martin's Place. Cleared things up and then had a sandwich at Casa Corcoran. Cheers richly on my way home, then wrote and for that at 4. Left to read paper and the G.C. Drink

Worked till 7.30
Dinner

Wake and up 7:45

2nd Sunday after Trinity

T. Peter after breakfast and told him to come in his car so as to take back the car that I have put for this wedding present. Arranged plans for four weeks and got so tired that I simply rested in a chair and felt half asleep. Read myself and got weary for Peter and me. I got over the influence and is at work again. Read obscure for a while after lunch and for the glory. Peter and I got 5:30 and dined in dinner jacket. Put out sheep pen relation who arrived 7:45. Pleasant drive and evening together.

Monday, November 7

Up and washed and put on sweater and knee-length gown at 7:00 and then rested for an hour. Certainly felt better although I sat up in bed all night to keep down coughing. After breakfast I took my usual toilet and being bath. I had shaved last night. Then I read full page of some 20 or more of letters in the Times on the Lady Chatterley Case.
By that time Dr. Ripman came to see me and I got him by Sherry. He told me to stop supper & salt and in the evening. He also brought me a bunch of clack. He said the only milk for

SCOTTISH QUARTER DAY

After a bad night with a new wave the itching like eczema all over and I had used a mixture of lotion several times in the night. Sprung a bush and left about getting slight relief. Ted & Beers Graham - who recommended Caladryl - never on Monday but it made itches & worse when Matel got brought it back before lunch.
Spence one big chicken lunch which I ate but then it was sheer endurance all the afternoon. Tea and Ted Bryman who came home with a doryla spray. He sprayed me and I gave him

Slept all yesterday evening Round myself up at 10 P.M. and got ready for night and put laundry away. Used a little of E. G. - Spray.
To sleep about 2 1/2 hrs. in drinking sweat. Dried myself etc and went back to bed. A cellulitis around of elbow and more spray I think some of the tablets the doctors have prescribed must be for sleep. Not only yesterday but again today I have slept all the time up and around about 8-10 paid Mrs Fry. Phyllis Whitworth & I came to lunch and we talked about old days in the Drama League.

She had a good deal to say about Olive Escher who seems to have taken a good part in stage activities. I think Escher came to miss Geoffrey more and more. The Drama League had an immense regard for

Left at 7 when I wrote to Peter after breakfast at 9.30. He was to have his. He said he would bring only 3 guests so we will be 5 for Christmas dinner. I spent morning filing letters and papers &
w. a note to Betty Knox about my contribution to Vears part. A lot more cards have come and few play and two talks have come. No appetite and only nibbled luncheon at a little decoration & w. holly. Mild gray day.
Rested. Tea. Peter tel. for

Robert-Bondence vs

Nine Statesman April 23, 1960 The Solemn Ass Theory of Corwin's Law. A century or so ago one Senator Thomas Corwin, a slightly embittered wit himself, laid down the proposition that "If you would succeed in life, you must be solemn, solemn as an ass. All the great monuments of earth have been built over solemn asses."
